Last Monday 25th January was a Zoom presentation by Jack Perks. "Diary of a Wildlife Photographer". An excellent presentation enjoyed by all the members. If you missed this click onto links below to give you an idea of how Jack captures his photographs of wildlife.

Jack suggested everybody has to take a picture of a robin when we have snowfall. Here is a picture by camera club member Steve Higgins.

Monday 1st February PDI Competition

Ladies v Gents Judge Ralph Duckett

This is a zoom meeting. Linda Shaw has already sent out the invite to this meeting by email. We have a total of 50 images. 28 for the men, 22 for the ladies. A scoresheet has been sent to every member so they can keep a track of the titles. The Ladies have won all previous comps. ( I can't remember how many). So hopefully Ralph can fix this for us. I wonder what his favourite tiple is. Of course if we lose again the only thing Ralph will get from the "Gents" is sour grapes. As the editor I can say.....

Come on the Men !!!

QUIZ TIME

Hello Everyone! Hope you are all keeping safe and well. Well done to all the competition winners so far. I would still like to see a few more entries please, but many thanks to those who have had a go. You are a very bright lot indeed and I think I may have to toughen up the questions as generally I am receiving very high scores.

Winner of Quiz No 2
Graham Orgill
Well done
£10 Voucher will be sent asap.

Graham Orgill. Winner of Quiz no.2.
Graham also photographed a robin in the snow. Roy said that Graham was one of three members that answered all the questions correctly. Support Roy's quiz and send in your entry to harrison209@talktalk.net

Message from the Editor.

Last week I had a brainwave. Wouldn't it be good for members to receive a certificate for winning entries digitally? (Due to Covid-19 we have been unable to meet and I felt we were missing out). I contacted Carole who thought it was a good idea, but was reluctant to tell Dave as it would involve a lot of work. I was volunteered by Carole to tell David my thoughts and I think I got a thumbs up, but he seemed to be talking through gritted teeth.

The work involved was monumental, as Dave has to find various files to extract the information and then change layers to produce the certificates. Dave has promised to send the certificates from March 2020 till the last competition, in the coming week. I didn't suggest this because I've got a couple of certificates coming (honest).

Message from the Editor. Part 2.

Revenge of the Dave, (Sounds like a Star Wars Film). Dave had a few members who, when the scoresheets were emailed, noticed the titles they entered, were not as expected. I'm sure he thought he could get his own back by asking me to change a few titles. This is not straightforward, as I have to scrap the competition and start again.

Score Editor 1- Dave 1.

Message from the Editor. Part 3.

The next monthly competition for 22nd February 2021 is PDI Subject "Colour Blue" Judge Peter Siviter. PDI's have to be in by 8th February.

The PDI's have to be in 2 weeks before the competition as they take a quite a bit of organizing. Members need to send their 2 PDI's with titles, by email to Dave Perry at dave.p46@sky.com by the due date. Press Insert and then Files, to add your PDI's to your email. Dave has to put the images into separate member folders, checking they are the right size, before numbering them 1 and 2. Dave will email members within 2 days, to confirm receipt. Dave sends the completed folders to myself to enter into Dicentra. This involves opening a file, loading the entries, making a competition and then running the competition to make sure all the images and titles are correct. Printable scoresheets are then emailed back to Dave. Dicentra gives the running order of PDI's, so Dave can then take the PDI's out of their folders and number them to match the scoresheet 1-50 as in the case of Ladies and Gents. Scoresheets are then emailed to the members. The selectors and scorers have sheets for Ladies and Gents separately to aid in scoring. The scoresheets and PDI's are then sent to the Judge by Wednesday prior to the competition on the next Monday evening.

Apologies for all the details, but this was to make members aware of the work involved.

All members need to get your PDI's in for 8th February please

Monday 22nd February Monthly Competition No.4 PDI Subject "Colour Blue"

Judge Peter Siviter

PDI's for this competition need to be sent to dave.p46@sky.com by 8th February.

Next years programme is being formulated and if members would like to send in themes or titles for the club competitions, they will be considered.

Lee Chapman.

Lee came to the rescue when we needed a speaker at short notice. He sent this email to be included into the newsletter. Hopefully these workshops can go ahead. Lee also has a zoom presentation which I hope some of the members will support.

Newsflash. Editor is in hot water. My suggestion of digital certificates created a mountain of work for Dave . He has now produced 90 certificates (yes ninety!!!!) which will be sent out over the next few days. Having read a copy of the editors messages, they thought the words various, numerous and monumental did not do the effort involved justice. Their whole week revolved around producing certificates. It did not help when Carole read my mind in thinking Dave should have done them when the competitions were held. When I verbalised this to Carole, she told Dave. Talk about a wooden spoon job. So to make up, I am sending them a digital bouquet of flowers and a promise to keep my brainwaves to myself.
Editor Graham Caddick (unless I get the sack)
