Well last night's speaker was certainly different! It was a refreshing change to hear from someone who was so enthusiastic about his genre of photography and also Ireland which was obviously very dear to him. He had developed a unique style not hampered by trying to please judges and the style was completely different to anything we'd seen before. Those ethereal images in the final section were quite stunning. It was a pity that we had to strain to hear him in the first half, but it was worth the effort.

Please pass on my thanks to the programme secretary who has done an outstanding job again this season.

Kind Regards, Jan Wilson

Hi, just a note to say how much I enjoyed giving my talk last night. Ann and myself found you all very friendly and helpful. Hopefully you all enjoyed the night. A big thankyou to Dave who helped with the prints.

Once again my grateful thanks,

Keith Burgoyne

Photography

Photography is the art, application, and practice of creating durable images by recording light, either electronically by means of an image sensor, or chemically by means of a light-sensitive material such as photographic film. It is employed in many fields of science, manufacturing, and business, as well as its more direct uses for art, film and video production, recreational purposes, hobby, and mass communication.

Visit to County Buildings and St. Mary's Church. Message from Margaret Beardsmore

Eight members assembled at the Gatehouse café in Stafford for a coffee before the first part of our photoshoot at the County Buildings just around the corner. We were met by Mike Sutherland our local County Councillor and introduced to Paul Snape, currently Chairman of the County Council. Mike and Paul were very friendly and gave us a guided tour of this magnificent building, including parts even Mike hadn't seen before.

Afterwards we did a quick dash to St Mary's Church before they closed for visitors and persuaded the volunteer in charge to put some lights on. As we were looking around, the organist turned up and gave us some wonderful renditions of hymns while allowing himself to be photographed-it's amazing how opportunities happen when you just 'show up'.

Those of us with time for lunch treated ourselves with a meal at the Grove restaurant before heading for home. I'm looking forward to seeing everyone's images when we've all downloaded and edited them. Many thanks to Margaret from all the attendees.

LET'S HAVE A LAUGH!

An elderly lady phoned an airline office in New York and asked 'How long does it take to fly to Miami?' 'Just a minute....' said the clerk. 'Thank you' the old lady said and hung up.

George came home from work, ate his dinner and slumped in the chair. Worried that he was working too hard and needed to relax, his wife went over to him and started caressing him tenderly. 'Get off, woman' he said testily, 'I get enough of that at the office!'
